

FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE

This Financial Services Guide was updated on 1st March 2022

What is the purpose of this Financial Services Guide?

We have designed this Financial Services Guide (FSG) to assist you in deciding whether to use any of the financial services we offer. This FSG must provide you with information about:

- Our name and contact details;
- The financial services we are authorized to provide;
- Any remuneration that we, or any other relevant person, may be paid in relation to the financial services we offer;
- How we deal with complaints against us.

However, this FSG does not provide information about our financial services in relation to basic deposit products and non-cash payment facilities, other than the information about:

- Our name and contact details; and
- How we deal with complaints against us.

What other documents might I receive?

When we provide you with a financial service, we may also have to provide you with a Statement of Advice or a Woolworths Team Bank Account and Access Facility Document. These documents are described below.

Statement of Advice

A Statement of Advice is a document that sets out personal advice we give to you, the basis on which we give the advice, and any benefit or association that may influence the advice we provide to you. The Statement of Advice helps you to make an informed decision about whether to act upon that advice.

We must give you a Statement of Advice when we provide you with advice in relation to a financial product, after taking into consideration your objectives, financial situation or needs. We will not provide you with a Statement of Advice if our advice relates only to our basic deposit products and non-cash payment facilities.

Woolworths Team Bank Account and Access Facility Document

The Woolworths Team Bank Account and Access Facility Document document provides you with information about a financial product and the entity that issues the financial product (the Issuer).

Information includes, amongst other things:

- the Issuer's name and contact details;
- the significant features of the financial product and its terms and conditions;
- any significant benefits and risk associated with holding the financial product;
- the fees and cost associated with holding the financial product; and
- dispute resolution procedures, and how you can access them.

What financial services can we provide?

Our Australian Financial Services License authorizes us to deal in and provide advice about the following financial products:

- deposit products — our transaction, savings and term deposit accounts;
- none cash payment facilities — such as member chequing, Redicard, Visa card, Internet banking, international funds transfers and travel card products;
- term or investment deposit accounts that are not basic deposit products and
- general insurance.

In addition to the financial services we provide under our Australian Financial Services License, we also deal in and advice on consumer lending products.

On whose behalf do we provide financial services?

When we provide advice about non-basic term or investment deposit accounts or insurance products, we do so on our own behalf. When we issue our non-basic term or investment deposit accounts we do so on our own behalf.

When we arrange to issue insurance or travel products, we do so on behalf of the product issuers. Details of who the relevant product issuer is will be included in their Product Disclosure Statement for that particular product.

What remuneration or other benefits do we receive for providing financial services?

We do not receive fees or commissions for financial product advice we give or for issuing our non-basic term or investment products.

We may receive commissions from an insurer when we arrange an insurance product, as set out below:

- general insurance products - commissions may range from 5% to 30% of premiums for new insurance and insurance renewals, depending on the type of insurance product;
- Travel products - commission of 1% of the Australian dollar value of the product.

If you receive personal advice from us in relation to insurance products, we will be required to provide you with more detailed information about the amount of commission that we may receive or the method in which commission is calculated, in or with your Statement of Advice.

What remuneration or other benefits do our employees receive for providing financial services?

As a rule, our staff are remunerated principally by salary and do not receive any direct benefits for providing you with financial services in relation to our non-basic term or investment deposit accounts or insurance products. From time to time we may allow insurers to run promotion programs under which they may reward or provide benefits to our staff for their success in arranging the issue of insurance products during the promotion period. If you receive personal advice from us, we will be required to provide you with more detailed information about any relevant benefit in or with your Statement of Advice.

Where Woolworths Team Bank provides you with personal advice, please note that the advice is:

Not Independent

Woolworths Team Bank is not independent, impartial or unbiased in relation to personal advice that we may provide because:

- we limit the financial products that our employees may advise on;
- we issue some of the financial products that our employees (who are remunerated by us) may advise on;
- we receive remuneration from some issuers of third-party financial products that our employees may advise on.

What should you do if you have a complaint?

We conduct a dispute resolution system to deal with any complaints you may have about any of our banking products or services, or about any financial service we provide in relation to insurance products. Our dispute resolution policy requires us to deal with any complaint efficiently, speedily and sympathetically. If you are not satisfied with the way in which we have resolved your complaint, or if we do not respond speedily, you may refer the complaint to our external dispute resolution centre. If you want to make a complaint, contact our staff at any branch and tell them that you want to make a complaint. Our staff has a duty to deal with your complaint under our dispute resolution policy. Our staff must also advise you about our complaint handling process and the timetable for handling your complaint. We have an easy to read guide to our dispute resolution system available to you on request.
